DROPBOX

INTEGRATIONS

Here's how to package your films for Lightbox Film Festival

All submissions must be in secure online screener formats.

Lightbox Film Festival is presented by Dropbox and The Fandom Menace. A direct link to a custom Dropbox submissions folder will be sent to you upon your registration. Upon registering your interest for the Lightbox Film Festival, you will receive instructions on how to submit your film. Your film will then be watched by judges on Dropbox's online viewing platform.

Physical submissions are not accepted.

Rough cuts will be considered, but judged accordingly -- do your best to submit a completed film. To support filmmakers who kept cameras rolling during COVID-19, Lightbox welcomes films of reduced production value.

Receipt of your submission will be sent to the email that you signed up for Lightbox Film Festival with. Please ensure that your information is correct, as Lightbox will make contact with you. Submission cannot be withdrawn upon receipt of payment.

SUBMISSION FORMAT

The rules that govern Lightbox Film Festival

The submission period of Lightbox Film Festival is only until 31st January 2021 at 23:59 (GMT+8). Submissions received after 31st January 2021 will be rejected.

All categorised films are accepted, as long as

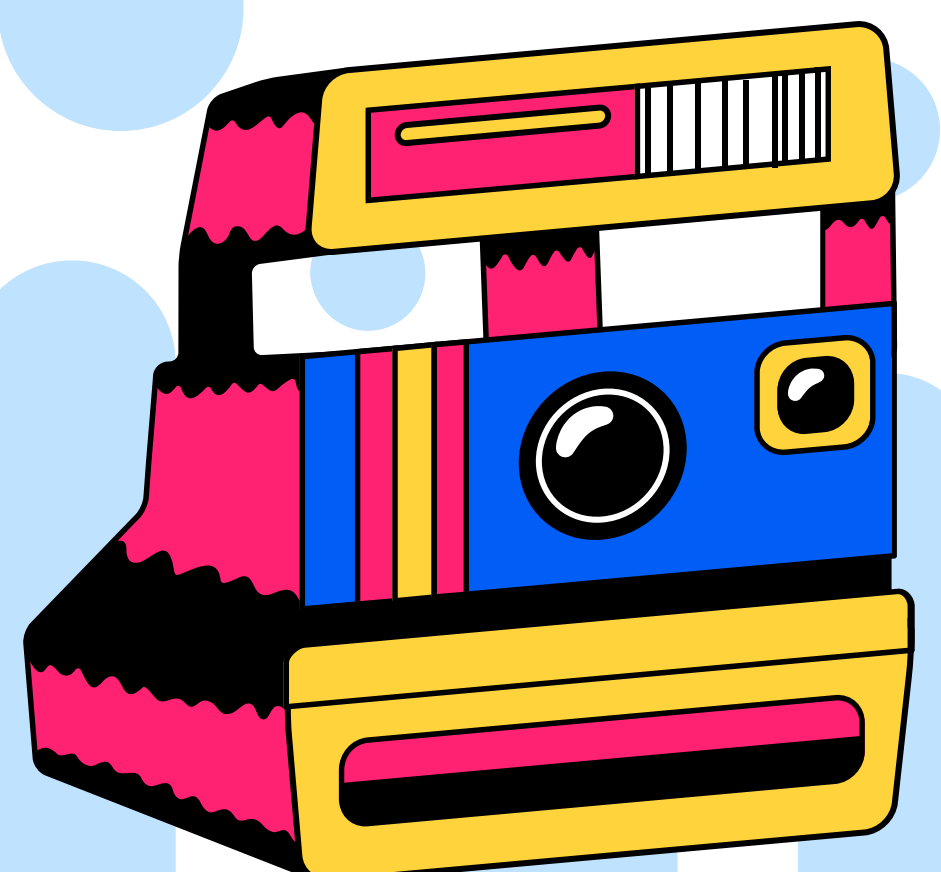

- They're no older than two years old as of 31st January 2021
- They've never been broadcasted on television or premiered at theatres or other public broadcast avenues
- The broadcast and screening rights are solely owned by participants

Films that have previously been submitted to other film festivals will be accepted.

Films will not be accepted if you do not own them in their entirety. Lightbox Film Festival will not be held accountable where ownership disputes are concerned. Upon submission, you retain initial ownership of all your films.

Submitting to Lightbox Film Festival means that you agree to all of the above Rules & Regulations. Failure to adhere will result in disqualification.
